Request for Concurrence with Overture #047 from the Presbytery of Utah

Please help us enlist Presbyteries around the country to support the “Overture for Engagement and Education with Eastern Europe,” #047

The overture was submitted by the Presbytery of Utah and received concurrence from the Missouri River Valley and Detroit Presbyteries.

The overture is proposed to help us engage in the Matthew 25 vision of PCUSA to “actively engage in the world.” Specifically, we seek to better understand the situations and work of Christians in Russia, Ukraine, and Belarus and to provide support to our partners there.

The overture asks for collaboration of the PC(USA) Office of Middle East and Europe, the Office of Compassion, Peace, and Justice, and the International Peacemaking Program within the Office of Public Witness to:

- Conduct annual study tours of 6-8 Presbyterians accompanied by staff,
- Engage in discussions, in-person or virtually, with a diversity of voices from Orthodox and Protestant churches and faith-based Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in the three countries,
- Utilize Presbyterian News Service to publish articles that help Presbyterians understand the complexities within the region and our own country’s engagement in the region,
- Develop and distribute a toolkit for churches interested in learning more and/or participating in future study tours,
- Develop a reading list for churches who want to understand the conflicts in the region,
- Develop and distribute study guides in cooperation with the Belarus, Ukraine, and Russia Mission (BURM) Network,
- Identify opportunities for youth engagement across the region, that would include youth from the United States.

Here are two videos to support the “Overture for Engagement and Education with Eastern Europe,” #047, to the 225th General Assembly (2022) of PC(USA).

Entire text of overture:

Overture #047 to General Assembly

The Presbytery of Utah submits this overture to the 225th General Assembly (2022): that World Mission expand its presence in the region of Russia, Belarus, and Ukraine to listen deeply and broadly to the many different voices in the region. The people in each of these three nations are struggling under the weight of multiple conflicts and crises, both inside their countries and in their relationships with each other. It is important for the Church to understand these conflicts and to be aware of our own country's participation in them. The purpose of this proposed increased presence in the region is to educate our constituency about the complexities of the situations, enabling Presbyterians to evaluate critically and neutralize the effects of propaganda.

The Matthew 25 vision of PC(USA) encourages us to “actively engage in the world,” challenging us not only to boldly take action in our own communities and nation, but to reach out to others in the world, to hear their pain, to understand their challenges, and to be instruments of peace, love, and justice.

Actions Recommended

Three study trips have already been accomplished during this time of war in Ukraine, two sponsored by The Office of Middle East and Europe and one jointly sponsored with the International Peacemaking Program. In each case, a small group of staff and constituents met with church leaders in Russia and Ukraine to listen and explore their understanding of the conflict and the church's role in it.

These were powerful trips for the small number who participated, but the impact on the broader church's understanding has not been significant.

To expand that impact, we ask the Office of Middle East and Europe in collaboration with the Office of Compassion, Peace and Justice, to include the International Peacemaking Program and the Office of Public Witness, to implement the following actions:

- Conduct annual study tours of 6-8 Presbyterians accompanied by staff,
- Engage in discussions, in-person or virtually, with a diversity of voices from Orthodox and Protestant churches and faith-based Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) in the three countries,
- Utilize Presbyterian News Service to publish articles that help Presbyterians understand the complexities within the region and our own country's engagement in the region,
- Develop and distribute a toolkit for churches interested in learning more and/or participating in future study tours,
- Develop a reading list for churches who want to understand the conflicts in the region,
- Develop and distribute study guides in cooperation with the Belarus, Ukraine, and Russia Mission (BURM) Network,
- Identify opportunities for youth engagement across the region, that would include youth from the United States.

Rationale:

As observers in the United States, we sometimes find ourselves participating or taking sides in the conflicts of the region, without fully grasping the many different points of view and the historical complexities that influence them.

There is clearly a serious need for reconciliation between Russia and Ukraine, but the need is also great within Ukraine itself among churches, cultures, and language groups. We need reconciliation between the United States and Russia, as well as between the United States and Ukraine; a reconciliation that is only possible when we listen for understanding to the diverse voices within these two countries.

The current conflict in Belarus began between the government and the people, particularly the younger generation, complicated by the regional geo-political context and the threat of Russian interference, and exacerbated by the tension between Russia and the West.

We need to hear what the churches in these countries are (or are not) doing toward reconciliation and peacemaking and reflect on our own role in the process. The effect of our sanction policies is that ordinary people are being impoverished and are struggling.

There is a pattern of division across the globe, with increasing efforts to separate people. By expanding our awareness and understanding of positive steps toward peacemaking and negative steps that deepen the divides or violate human rights, we are better able to recognize similar patterns in our own context.

The current global trends demand that we, the Church, work intentionally with others to overcome propaganda that fuels divisions by seeking to build bonds of trust. It is only through efforts to understand and appreciate each other that we are able to engage ecumenically and become witnesses for peace and unity in the Body of Christ.

Desired Outcomes

With these focused actions:

- Presbyterians will have the tools they need to evaluate critically what they hear in the media.
- A larger community will develop of Presbyterians committed to peacemaking in this context and globally.
- Local congregations will be better equipped to engage with global partners, enriching both.
- The Church will have a better-educated constituency who are more prepared to be advocates for peace and justice.
- The Church will expand its Matthew 25 vision of eradicating systematic poverty, dismantling racism, and building congregational vitality through dialogue with partners in the region.
- The youth of all four countries do not carry the weight of our history, which propaganda preys on, and therefore will play a meaningful role in dialogue.

Financial Impact

The cost of implementing this overture is relatively small and might include:

- Cost of preparing and distributing information,
- Partial scholarships, particularly for youth engagement, which are a powerful investment in the future.

The cost of study tours for staff will be covered by participants, so the only cost for World Mission is staff time. In order to make this time, we acknowledge the necessity of a shift in priorities, but the critical nature of the situation in this region warrants the investment.

Mission Council

Report to February 19, 2022 Stated Meeting of the POJ

The Mission Council reports this information:

1. Received an update from the Facilities and Hospitality Task Force [Rev. Tom Coye, chair; Rev. Victoria Murdock; Ruling Elder Barry Parks (Westminster, Charlottesville)]. They are tasked with identifying three potential office facilities for the “traveling presbyters.” Over twenty congregations or ministries have responded to the survey offering to be a satellite office location.
2. Appointed a team to address the possibility of hybrid presbytery meetings (simultaneous “in person” and virtual participation) in the future.
3. Received a communication from Rev. Jess Cook and Charles Bolling that they are applying for a Seed Grant from the P.C.(U.S.A.) for a New Worshiping Community called “Every Table.” Fred Holbrook was authorized to sign the grant application on behalf of the presbytery. Ginter Park Church has agreed to be a partner congregation.
4. Heard an update from the Presbyters Search Committee that the Ministry Information Form (MIF) for the Lead Presbyter for Vision and Collaboration remains open through January 31, 2022. The MIFs for the Presbyter for Congregational Life and the Presbyter for Relational Care will be posted on Church Leadership Connection site on February 1, 2022.

5. Heard from Fred Holbrook that, after much prayer and discernment with his family and colleagues, he will retire effective June 30, 2022. July 1, 2022 is 40 years to the day since his ordained ministry began in Charlotte, NC. Discussion included the need for a transition process in anticipation of the possibility that the three presbyters and the stated clerk may yet to have started in their positions. A transition task force was appointed including Rev. Jim Moseley, Rev. Beverley Bullock, and Ruling Elder Carol Martin.

The Mission Council reports taking the following actions:

1. Approved holding the February 19, 2022 meeting virtually.
2. Approved benefit coverage through the P.C.(U.S.A.) Board of Pensions to its part-time employees Barbara Espigh and Kelley Hope effective October 1, 2021, continuing through December 31, 2022, under plans of their choosing, at a total annual cost to the presbytery of no more than $11,842 for each employee.
3. Approved changing the name of AFREIM (African Evangelical International Ministries) to All Nations Presbyterian Fellowship effective January 1, 2022.
4. Accepted the resignation of Deborah Rexrode, Associate for Stewardship, effective November 8, 2021. She accepted the position of Director of Development for the Keswick School.
5. Approved a plan that calls for an audit one year (e.g., 2019), review the next year (e.g., 2020), review the following year (e.g., 2021), and then audit the next year (e.g., 2023).
6. Approved including in the 2022 proposed budget a 3% COLA adjustment for all staff and an additional $15,000 requested from the Commission on Ministry to support a new coaching requirement of “first call” or “first covenant” ministers, certified Christian educators, and commissioned pastors.
7. Approved including in the agenda for the February 19 stated meeting of presbytery a request for concurrence with Overture #047 from the Presbytery of Utah regarding the BURM Network. Rev. Connie Weaver and the Hebron Church session are bringing the request.

2022 Budget – Recommendation and Comments

The Mission Council moves the approval of the proposed 2022 Budget for the Presbytery of the James.

The current proposed budget is found on the following 5 pages in this report packet and is found in the last three columns on the page. The 2021 budget and the year-to-date actual amounts (the first two columns) are presented for comparison purposes.

The first draft of the budget was provided as a “first reading” at the October 2021 stated Presbytery meeting. At that time, the draft budget was “balanced” and reflected revenues ($718,205), expenses ($1,248,274) and uses of existing funds ($530,069).

Today’s proposed budget remains a “balanced” one, with revenues of $708,205, expenses of $1,214,924, and uses of existing funds of $522,219.

There are several significant revisions that have been made to the October draft budget to arrive at today’s proposed budget.

- 1. Revenues arising from intents of support from the congregations have been reduced to lower levels of $686,587. As churches around the Presbytery struggle financially, many have informed the Presbytery of the need to reduce their level of support, in both small and significant amounts.
- 2. The amounts to be paid as per capita fees to the General Assembly and to the Synod have been finalized, and the line-item expenses have been reduced.
- 3. The staffing of the Presbytery in this proposal reflects a delay in the arrival of the Lead and other two Presbyters until later dates in the year (compared to projections used in the October draft). Current staff positions will remain “as is” until the new Presbyters begin work, with the overall staffing costs reflecting a slightly smaller amount (compared to projections used in the October draft). All staff costs have been updated for current salary and insurance rates and estimates of moving costs for the new presbyters have been included in staff costs.
- 4. The budgeted cost of sending the Alternate Commissioners to the General Assembly has been eliminated, in light of the virtual GA in 2022.
- 5. The proposed budget now includes a $15,000 item to support the Commission on Ministry’s new coaching requirement for first-call ministers, certified Christian educators, and commissioned pastors within the Presbytery. In supporting this ministry, the Mission Council is reflecting the estimated financial costs in the budget.

Please let me point out several other items concerning the budgets of the Presbytery.

First, the Presbytery office has not yet received final payments on 2021 intents from all congregations. We encourage any church who has not made their final 2021 payment - nor submitted its 2022 intent - as of today to please do so as soon as possible.

Without these final pieces of information, it is necessary to broadly estimate those items in the revenue categories.

Second, as programs evolve in the life of the Presbytery, funding sources that come from designated or undesignated monies are reviewed to see if the nature of the source could be used to provide financial support. These sources, held in invested monies of the Presbytery, are reflected in a category called “Support from Existing Funds,” found after the expense totals on the last page. In the 2022 budget, a significant portion of staffing and congregational ministry costs are supported by the Church Ministries and Development Fund ($493,059), as allowed by the presbytery-designated use of this fund.

Third, the separation of Camp Hanover into its own organization in 2019 resulted in a covenant obligation by the Presbytery to the Camp in the amount of $114,000 in 2022. This is the only expense that relates to the Camp on the books of the Presbytery and is reflected as part of the expenses for the Mission Council.

Fourth, the budgets for the expenses have no known excess amounts and represent the ongoing support of staff, office operations, committees, commissions, constitutional committees, and the program ministries led by LCT and MAST. The amounts for all these entities are based on amounts requested for the 2022 programs.

The Presbytery has sufficient accumulated earnings in its financial accounts to absorb a budgeted loss, should one materialize.

As many of you know, generating a budget for a new year is a prudent and “best practices” financial exercise that is a combination of pretty good estimates and good faith estimates. As with any budget, it is a guideline in the financial operations of the organization, giving monetary representations to our ministries and operational costs. For us, every effort is made by the Finance and Accounts Service Manager and the Interim General Presbyter to use accurate amounts and estimates, reflecting the programs for the year.

Working with the budgeted amounts during the year will see that variances will occur in many of the line items, due to actual circumstances encountered during the year. The Mission Council, supported by the Finance and Accounts Service Manager and Interim General Presbyter, reviews the financial operations and reports on a regular basis, working to stay abreast of significant changes in the underlying presumptions used to generate this budget and making adjustments as needed during the course of the year.

With all of these considerations in place, the Mission Council recommends the approval of the 2022 budget, as presented to you today.

Kenna Payne, Moderator
Mission Council

Trustees of Presbytery of the James, Inc.
Report to February 19, 2022 Stated Meeting of the POJ

The POJ Trustees report this information:

1. Reviewed a report from PILP (Presbyterian Investment and Loan Program) dated October 12, 2021. Fred Holbrook was asked to contact PILP to inquire about paying off the Church Mortgage Grants, the original amounts totaling $75,131.
2. Heard a report from Steve Hicks that RBC Wealth Management (Jeff Chapman, Senior Portfolio Manager) was directed to convert to cash a sufficient amount to cover projected budget needs for 2022. It was determined that $325,000 should be sufficient.
3. Heard that Stuart Settle, ruling elder from the Fairfield Church, has joined the Property Advisory Group (Bill Neal, moderator).
4. Closing on the sale of the New Covenant Church property will occur in February.
5. Received a proposal for the purchase of the Montrose Church property from New Destiny Apostolic Church (Bishop Duane Bell, Pastor Patricia Bell). It is being reviewed and, if less than 90% of its appraised value of $510,000, it will need approval of the presbytery.
6. Appointed Dan Jordanger to assist Ben Spence, our attorney, in the discovery phase of the court proceedings regarding the Victoria Church property.
7. Elected Steven M. Hicks (ruling elder, Mitchells Church) as president, Carol H. Martin (ruling elder, Tuckahoe Church) as vice-president, and Fred Holbrook as Secretary/Treasurer of the corporation.
8. Received a report that the sale of the Greenwood Church property (including the church and the manse) to Chesterfield Community Church is in progress and will be completed in February.

The POJ Trustees report taking the following actions:

1. Approved entering into a Purchase Agreement with Large Tree, LLC offering $378,000 for the Goochland County property (5.98 acres at the SW quadrant of the interchange of Rt. 288 and Rt. 6). It was confirmed that the property appraised for $420,000. The Trustees have been granted permission by the presbytery to proceed with the sale if the offer is at least 90% of the appraised value.
2. Filed a Boundary Line Adjustment Plat at the Orange County Courthouse for the Gordonsville Church property and approved a “Deed of Gift” to an adjoining neighbor for a small portion of the property.
3. Directed that any future Administrative Commissions for the closure of a church will have on their essential task list the transfer of title from the trustees of the particular church to the Trustees of Presbytery of the James, Inc. This is supported by the Book of Order G-4.0203, 4.0204, and 4.0205. Fred was asked to make inquiry of the Circuit Court of each property reported as titled to the Trustees of POJ. It must be confirmed what entity actually holds title to the property before the presbytery closes a church.
4. Approved paying in full the payoff of $48,835.15 for the Church Mortgage Grants from the Presbyterian and Investment Loan Program (PILP), payment to be made from the Church and Ministries Development Fund. The notes being carried by four of our churches date from 1900 to 1975. If principal and interest were required to be repaid, the amounts would be significant. Fred Holbrook was asked to inform the sessions of the four churches.
5. Adopted a CORPORATE RESOLUTION granting authority to any one of the officers to sign for the Trustees as a whole in all corporate matters where a signature is required.
6. Renewed three leases for the Lakeside Church property effective January 1, 2022. Lessees are Lakeside Preschool and Childcare, Oasis Church (Iglesia Apostoles Y Profetas El Oasis Ef. 2:20), and Anointed New Life Church. Directed that the Property Advisory Group arrange for an annual inspection of the property by a builder, a licensed contractor, or a property manager. The Trustees will discuss the possible sale of the property at their March 16, 2022 meeting. The arrangement to rent to the Lakeside Preschool and Childcare “into perpetuity” is untenable.

The POJ Trustees report the following actions made as a commission: None.

The POJ Trustees make the following consent agenda recommendations:

1. That the POJ Net Assets with Restrictions (December 31, 2021) be received as information (see p. 32).
2. That the POJ Net Assets without Restrictions (December 31, 2021) be received as information (see p. 33).

The Trustees make the following recommendation:

1. That all undesignated proceeds from the sale of real estate be placed in the Church Ministries and Development Fund.

Report of the Presbyters Search Committee

As your Presbyters Search Committee, we wanted to give you an update on what we are up to. Job descriptions for all three presbyters have been written and approved by the Mission Council of the POJ. The Ministry Information Form (MIF) for the Lead Presbyter of Vision and Collaboration was sent to the Church Leadership Connection (CLC) and uploaded to their website in December. We stated an end date for applications as February 1, 2022. We have received 37 applications either from matching with the CLC or from self-referrals for the Lead Presbyter position as well as a handful of applications for the other two positions (Those MIFs were also posted as attachments to the Lead Presbyter MIF however they have not been uploaded for matching through CLC at this time). Your committee has a process for evaluating these MIFs and has determined the interview procedure with format and questions. We will begin interviewing later this month first through Zoom and then hopefully in person. We continue to be excited about the possibilities for the Presbytery of the James.

Coaching Policy

Presbytery of the James
Approved January 13, 2022

The first months in a new ministry position are filled with learning about the ministry position and getting to know the congregation. Coaching provides valuable support and insightful reflection for church professionals as they enter new positions. The stance of a coach is, “I’m on this journey with you. Let’s figure out together what you want to do and how you want to do it.” The Commission on Ministry wants every ministry professional to succeed and seeks to provide a means by which pastors, certified Christian educators, and commissioned pastors can have a skilled person help them in their first months in a new position.

All ministers, certified Christian educators, and commissioned pastors who are in their initial call or covenant in the presbytery are required to work with a coach for six months. Due to the value of this coaching process, the presbytery will cover the cost of coaching for eight sessions.

Ministers, certified Christian educators, and commissioned pastors who are new to the presbytery but not in their initial call or covenant are encouraged to take advantage of coaches. They may negotiate with the COM for financial support for up to eight sessions of coaching, after which time they would be responsible for their own funding.

The coaches can come from those certified in the Presbytery of Eastern Virginia or any other certified coaches (e.g., Presbyterian Coaching Network – www.presbyteriancoachnetwork.org).

Describe a moment in your recent ministry that you recognize as one of success and fulfillment.

Moments of success and fulfillment in ministry are precious. I experienced such a moment during Advent while serving as a student preacher. The church had planned for "Joy" to be their worship theme on a Sunday that I was preaching. I began preparing my sermon as I always do, by praying, studying the text in its original language, reading commentary and being open to the direction of the Holy Spirit. I began thinking of examples of joy, and I thought of Ebenezer Scrooge, the miserly character in Charles Dicken's "A Christmas Carol," who, one Christmas morning, discovers the joy of being kind and generous toward others.

Then my thoughts took me back to a time when I worked as a student chaplain at a state women's prison. It could be a depressing place, especially during Advent with no lights or decorations to help celebrate the season. Yet, I saw living, breathing joy in these women—like human Advent candles—glowing with gladness of spirit as they waited for the day they would be released and re-united with their families. I sensed the Holy Spirit at work, supporting and sustaining them in the darkness of prison life and giving them hope. I suddenly realized this memory would be a good illustration of joy for my sermon.

After the service, I met with a small group of church members and the pastor who gave me feedback on my sermon. I just knew from their comments that they received the message I was hoping to get across and I was filled with joy at this success!

Describe the ministry setting to which you believe God is calling you.

I believe God is calling me to a faith community that aspires to grow and be nurtured in its spiritual life. This community engages its hearts and minds to define what it means to be disciples of Jesus Christ, and how to live out that call in their daily life. It is comfortable with a collaborative style of leadership where all in the community work together with energy, intelligence, imagination and love to further its mission.

This community is intentional about its communal life. It rejoices together in times of gladness. It is caring in its fellowship, loving in its prayers for each other and compassionate in its actions toward one another. It supports one another in times of need. It is open to journeying together to be welcoming and inclusive of all, regardless of race, income, family status, place of origin, belief or doubt. It values diversity and it aspires to grow further in this direction.

This community is interested in exploring what it means to be the church in a changing world. This would help it define its mission focus and discover new and creative ways to worship, to fellowship and to do ministry. It is open to working to serve the needs of marginalized and vulnerable people and to advocating for inclusion and justice for the disenfranchised in its own locale and beyond. Its ministry would include working to address the root causes of these systemic situations. It is also interested in exploring and promoting ways to better care for God's earth.

What areas of growth have you identified in yourself?

I have grown in my awareness of the gift of love that comes from God, for God is love. This love, revealed to the world through the person and work of Jesus Christ, lives in us and enlightens our hearts and minds. Because of this wonderful love, I am able to deliver a meaningful sermon as a guest preacher. It opens my heart as I cover pastoral care for a church and listen to a woman sharing the joy of becoming a grandmother. It gives me a caring, yet wise, presence as a presbytery liaison to a church in the midst of searching for their next pastor.

This love enables me to be compassionate as a hospital chaplain to a family whose loved one just died. It guides me in creating a children's educational program that encourages them to ask questions and wonder about God. In all of these experiences, it is the love of God at work in me and guiding me.

I have witnessed the love of God at work in all of these places and I have shared the love of God with many. Yet, it is not these experiences that express who I am, but rather who God is, for I can see that it is God's love working in me and through me that makes all the difference. It is this very love that leads me, motivates me and challenges me. It is this very same love that is calling me now to being a pastor who will lead God's people in the way of love.

Describe a time when you have led change.

I was faced with leading change while working as the Director of Children's and Family Ministry at a church that scheduled their Sunday School concurrent with worship. I worked collaboratively with a commission who wanted to change the curriculum to a program that would allow children to be in worship for part of the service, but would also allow time for them to gather in classrooms with their peers to learn about God, scripture and the Christian faith tradition. They wanted a curriculum that was easy for teachers to prepare, many of whom were busy people pressed for time to prepare lessons.

Hopeful that we could do this, I researched several curriculum options, presented them to the commission and advised them on the one I thought would best fit the needs of our children and our teachers. We all agreed on that one. Next, the classrooms were totally re-arranged to accommodate the change of curriculum. I organized training sessions for all the teachers and introduced parents to the new program by presenting an actual classroom session to them.

Teachers found the lessons easier to teach because children were more interested and attentive. And parents were happy, too. One of them later told me a story about her family on a camping trip. One night her son said to her, “Mom, look at all the stars up in the sky. They remind us of all the people that are part of the great family of God.” Then I realized that God was working in a new way through this curriculum!

Statement of Faith – Mary Bielen

I believe:

The triune God is infinite, eternal, all-loving, all-knowing, almighty, and beyond our full understanding. Although three distinct persons whom we call Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the triune God is one God. In sovereign love and graciousness, God fashions the world in all its wonder and diversity, reconciles its brokenness, and brings divine presence and transformative power to our lives, the church and our world. God does so with grace and the freedom to choose to do so. God is forever welcoming, caring, and faithful.

God created all that is and called it good. God creates humanity in God’s own likeness and to be in loving relationship with God, neighbor and all of creation. Yet, humanity falls short of God’s will because of sin, causing us to turn from the wonderful grace that God extends to us, as we live without trusting in God, seek our own fulfillment and ignore the needs of neighbors and friends.

Yet, God came into the world in the person of Jesus Christ, Son of God, fully human and fully divine, to redeem the world through God’s unconditional love. This was an act of grace expressing what God freely chose to do. Jesus, in his earthly ministry, taught his disciples about the realm of God, healed the sick, fed the hungry, and offered hospitality to outcasts. He called out injustices and empty religious rituals and gave his life for humanity in an act of gracious love. Through his life, death and resurrection, humanity receives the grace of God’s undeserved mercy and forgiveness. We are awakened to new life, faith, hope and love, freeing us to love God and neighbor.

God also comes to us in the person of the Holy Spirit, who works in each person who confesses belief in God. The Spirit empowers the believer to love oneself, God and neighbor. The Spirit enables the believer to follow Christ and to respond to God’s will with the fullness of body and mind. The Spirit enlightens our understanding of Scripture as a witness to Jesus and a testimony to God’s love, and empowers the church to interpret the Word for its present time and culture.

Jesus instituted the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord’s Supper during his earthly ministry. In the waters of Baptism, the Spirit claims us as members of God’s family and we are made one with Christ. In the bread and cup of the Lord’s Supper, the Spirit offers us communion with God, strengthening us to live according to God’s will.

The Church was initiated by Jesus’ command to go into the world and make disciples. God made Jesus the Head of the Church, which is the body of Christ. The mission of the Church is to be a servant people, who partner in the ministry of Jesus, sharing the good news of God’s gracious love. It is called to love God with all of its heart, soul and mind and to love its neighbors as itself. The Church engages its mission by welcoming all in love, breaking down barriers that divide people, standing against what is contrary to the will of God, and working to advance God’s peace, justice, and freedom and to bring forth God’s transformation in the world. The Holy Spirit gifts the church with what it needs to fulfill its ministry and its mission in the world. By participating in the life of the Church, we continually take part in the life of Jesus and his work.

Statement of Faith – Stephen Hitchcock

I believe God is love, one and three—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It is through lovingkindness that God is revealed to us and through us. 1 John 4:12 says, “No one has ever seen God, but if we love one another God lives in us and God’s love is made complete in us.” To love God is to love one’s neighbor and to love one’s neighbor is to love God—the two are wholly bound up with each other. This is the mystery of faith: God who is the eternally sovereign creator and sustainer of the universe, who is wholly transcendent, chooses radical immanence and loving solidarity with all of humankind.

I believe Jesus of Nazareth is the son of God, co-equal in every way with the Father and the Spirit, who by his life, death, and resurrection reconciled and continues to reconcile all things, establishing a peaceable kingdom without end. By virtue of his birth, earthly life and ministry, death, and resurrection, Jesus overcame sin, injustice, alienation, and oppression and made possible true reconciliation. As humans we are lost without God; through Christ we are found by God. Jesus became for us a second Adam and Eve, inaugurating a new humanity for all. God’s grace is a gift generously given. In the words of the Apostle Paul, “For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast” (Ephesians 2:8-9).

I believe in the Holy Spirit, who gathers this new humanity into Christ’s body, the church. The Spirit binds the community of faith to one another and is the avenue for human participation in the life and work of God. Members of the body are called by the Spirit to participate in that divine life and work through the care of all living things. In particular, the Spirit guides and instructs the church—in matters of worship, governance, and practice—through the teaching and preaching of the Word of God, as revealed in the Old and New Testaments. Incorporation into the church's missional identity is symbolized and enacted through the sacraments of Holy Baptism and Holy Communion. In baptism members are marked with God's prevenient grace and initiated into the community of faith; in Holy Communion members celebrate and partake in the mystery of Christ's life, death, and resurrection. Through the teaching and preaching of God's Word, through regular worship, through the enactment of the sacraments, and through acts of service the church becomes the church, living into its Christian faith and vocation.

I live in hope that God in Christ will one day remake the world and overcome evil in its entirety, so that all of creation, every living thing, will know the true shalom—global and unending peace—for which we were created. I believe it is the present mission of the church to enact that future restoration through concrete acts of stewardship, compassion, and justice.

Statement of Faith- Safwat Marzouk

I believe in the triune God, creator, sustainer, and redeemer of the universe, whom alone through the grace of God, love of Christ, and communion of the Spirit I worship and serve and to whom I belong in life and death.

God created a good world, desired to live in communion with creation and envisioned the creation to live in harmony. I confess that the whole creation and I rebel against God falling in personal and communal sins. I believe that the only hope for the creation and for myself lies in God's faithfulness to God's covenant with the created world.

I believe in Jesus Christ, fully God and fully human. He is the Word incarnate, the full revelation of who God is. I believe that through his birth, life, ministry, death, resurrection, and ascension he proclaimed the good news of God's loving and saving power to redeem the world from the power of sin and he embodied the fullness of the reign of God. I believe that Jesus Christ is my Savior and Lord.

I believe in the Holy Spirit giver and renewer of life. I believe that the Spirit is at work in me and in the church empowering us to mature and become like the image of Jesus Christ. The Spirit unites the church and gives gifts to the church to do the ministry of reconciliation in the world. I believe that the Spirit speaks to me, to the church, and to the world through the written and proclaimed word. I believe that the Spirit is at work liberating those who are oppressed and marginalized.

I believe in the church, the body of Christ. I belong to the church as a disciple of Christ. The church is called to embody the life of discipleship and it is called to live in the fullness of the reign of God. The church is called to proclaim hope in midst of despair, justice in the face of oppression, and peace in the midst of conflict. I believe that we are called to proclaim God's holistic love to all people. I believe that the mission of the church is to worship.

I believe that in the church we read and interpret the Bible, the written word of God. I believe that God, who spoke in the historical contexts of the biblical texts, still speaks to the church here and now through encountering scriptures. Our faithful reading of scripture is not a literalist reading, but rather a reading that takes the historicity of the text and the situatedness of the reader seriously. I believe that the spirit guides us to interpret scriptures, enables us to encounter Christ in the word, and empowers us to experience God's liberating love in the text. I believe that the same Holy Spirit is at work when the church gathers to receive new members in the community through baptism and it is the same spirit who is at work in our hearts to receive God's grace and mercy when we partake in the Eucharist.

I have been and continue to live by hope in God's reign. Though evil may seem powerful and strong, I believe that God is at work in redeeming the groaning creation. As God's story of the new creation unfolds, I join in worshipping God and I give a hand in serving God and the world. GLORY BE TO GOD!

Describe a moment in your recent ministry that you recognize as one of success and fulfillment.

As a church intern, I implemented and facilitated several classes on the Lord's Prayer. While teaching a session on forgiveness, I recognized that I had a passion for teaching and guiding discussion. The enthusiastic feedback from many of the participants was that I was a gifted teacher. After further reflection, I believe I am successful because I integrated appropriate personal stories and transparency with biblical and theological commentary. This combination brought the good news of the gospel home to class members. Later, a class member approached me and asked if we could meet to discuss forgiveness further. She stated, "You seem to have a good grasp of forgiveness, and I am having a difficult time forgiving someone in my life." I believe she sensed my vulnerability and empathy. I felt the woman's need and the grave urgency in her eyes, so we arranged a meeting. When we met, I opened with prayer, and then I offered her the space to share. I took note that in the very act of sharing, the process of forgiveness had begun! Her demeanor changed right before my eyes, and I was humbled. The success I felt was in my ability to lead, with God's help, a class towards reflection and transparency. The joy came when listening to her empathically and lovingly opened the door to healing.

Describe the ministry setting to which you believe God is calling you.

I am confident God is calling me to a church where:

- I can live out my call as a pastor. God has bestowed in me a love for people. I desire to guide Christians of all generations towards greater spiritual maturity in faith and discipleship.
- I can proclaim the "Good News" of the Gospel passionately and create liminal worship experiences. I consider myself a dynamic and relevant communicator who is passionate about preaching and worship liturgy. I seek a church that values the reformed tradition and appreciates both traditional and contemporary worship styles. One that welcomes change, motivated by creativity, and willing to explore new ways to worship God.
- I am invited to nurture, encourage, and motivate its members. I consider myself a "shepherding" pastor, and it is my deepest desire to nurture and care for the spiritual well-being of God's people. I feel called to utilize my gift of coaching to encourage, with God's help, a congregation toward a deepened faith and motivate a response of action to serve.
- I am encouraged to teach. It is my life-long passion to continue to learn how to be a disciple for Jesus Christ. I consider every moment I breathe an opportunity to learn, and this propels my enthusiasm for teaching. I must serve a congregation that is passionate about the Bible - has a deep yearning to know the Triune God more deeply, and willing to learn by engaging scripture thoughtfully and participate in honest and grace-filled discussions.

What areas of growth have you identified in yourself?

My most recent growth has been as a servant leader. The many opportunities I have had in teaching, worship leadership, mission outreach, pastoral care, youth leadership, and preaching has facilitated this growth. I have learned how to nurture better and guide the communities I have served by sharing authority by putting into practice the needs of others first. I have witnessed that this practice creates healthy, wiser, freer, and "servant" minded individuals, members and communities. Being a "servant first" is a life-long journey and truly emulates Christ. This form of leadership focuses on the growth and well-being of the people and communities to which they belong, and I believe, has the power to create a more ethical and empathetic world. I have thus discerned that I am a compassionate and transparent pastor who wholeheartedly seeks to serve others. This vulnerability and willingness to be open fosters trust. I believe his type of leadership, with God's help, can have the power to deepen faith and facilitate an authentic response to the Gospel message.

Describe a time when you have led change.

My most recent position at Lexington Presbyterian Church has provided many opportunities to elicit change because it is a congregation in transition. However, the most significant change was helping the church stay connected during the pandemic. The church's lack of audio-visual and technological equipment combined with the lack of expertise available created an opportunity for me to use my "self-starter" skills. The goal of the pastoral staff was to keep the congregation connected. With this in mind, I organized a team and led the implementation of our Zoom platform. With the help of other staff members and two congregation members, we were able to successfully get all meetings and worship online within two weeks of being shut down. Together we took responsibility for a new ministry "On-Line Church." This included worship, Sunday School Classes, Mid-Week Bible study, Children's Story Time, Youth Group, and all Session/ Committee Meetings. My advocacy and leadership for such a significant portion of "church" motivated others to help, participate, and organize a special task force to modernize the sanctuary to meet the future online worship needs. This example parlays my interpersonal skills, organizational agility, willingness to learn and adapt, and my capacity for leading collaborative change during a transitional time.

Statement of Faith – Kelly-Ann Rayle

I believe in one God who is fully present everywhere and at all times. God is Creator, Ruler, Sustainer, Redeemer, Renewer, and Reconciler of life, and I fully belong to God in life and death.

I believe humanity is incapable of redeeming itself, however, because our Creator is just, merciful, and purposefully providential, he sent a Redeemer, in Christ, who defeated sin by dying on a cross, so that humanity could have eternal life with the Creator. God's Son, Jesus Christ, set in place a conduit by which a personal relationship through the Holy Spirit could exist and transform humanity.

I believe that grace is the foundation of our faith, for in grace God has given God's Son, Jesus Christ, the second person of the Godhead, who is fully human and fully God, to teach unadulterated love and liberate humankind from the bondage of sin. I am a sinner, and I have a propensity to sin. Therefore I recognize that I am completely and utterly dependent on God's unmerited grace in Christ Jesus for my justification and salvation. I witness to this covenant of grace given by God through my baptism, participation in the Lord's Table, and witness.

I believe that my faith in Jesus Christ is made effectual through the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit, the third person in the Godhead, who is at work in my life as I believe and trust in God. God's Spirit justifies me by grace through faith and unfetters me to lovingly accept myself, unreservedly love God and neighbor, to live into my Baptismal identity, and work in the world for Christ's sake and God's glory.

I believe that the power of God's pure, generous, and self-giving love is unstoppable. This life-giving power is revealed in the Word made flesh, Jesus of Nazareth, who walked among us and is attested to in the Holy Scriptures. The Holy Scriptures are a gift given by humankind inspired by God through the power of the Holy Spirit and are the supreme authority in Christian life and practice. These Scriptures seek to define the church and its mission. The church is the Body of Christ, and as a member of that body, I am humbly called to glorify God through witness and mission.

Jesus epitomized God's desire for ALL creation. Jesus promoted love, conquered sin, obliterated evil, and even defied death through the power of His resurrection. Jesus Christ, in all His glory, will come again to reconcile God's beloved humanity unto God's self, until that time I am called by faith to witness to the church; to accept God's love, live in God's love, and be a conduit of God's love in the world. It is with sincere gratitude to a generous God, emboldened by the Holy Spirit I attempt to serve Christ by proclaiming the "Good News" to a broken world. All the while, doing my best to live into the words Jesus taught us to pray; "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

(Matt 6:10) Amen!

Leadership Connection Team

The Leadership Connection Team strives to connect the various ministries being carried out in the name of the Presbytery. Our focus is on those ministries that promote and support leadership within the Presbytery. They all have been challenged by the continuing pandemic. All of these ministries could be assisted with your ideas, your hopes and dreams and most importantly by your participation. We work with nine ministries:

- Black Caucus is a ministry that strives to strengthen the African American community and to be a voice to the churches of the Presbytery. More about their ministry can be found on the Presbytery's website. Look for information on programs they are sponsoring through the Vine and the information e-mails from the Presbytery.

An Update from Collegiate Ministry, the UKirk at UVA

UKirk at UVA and 20/30 CreW (Westminster Presbyterian Church's young adult ministry) held a number of socially distanced/masked programs throughout the spring semester, including: twice-weekly study hours, UKirk pancake breakfast/outdoor viewing of Sunday morning worship services, Yoga in the Courtyard, study hours at Common Grounds (our student ministry building) with Sophie the labradoodle, and virtual/outdoor Wednesday Wind-Down.

The fall semester came with fewer COVID restrictions, which allowed student meetings and gatherings to occur on the newly refurbished screened porch. Fall programming continued with twice-weekly study hours, Yoga in the Courtyard, and Wednesday Wind-Down. With COVID precautions in place, Common Grounds also reopened to host student- and young-adult-led groups from the UVA and Charlottesville communities, including the School of Education and Human Development's Black Scholars Writing Group and the Legal Aid Justice Center's Youth Justice Program.

Additional University Mission programming included a new Bagel Brunch for students and young adults at Common Grounds after 11 a.m. worship services, as well as UKirk and 20/30 CreW's combined Feeding Families Service Project, which involves delivering meals through the Alliance for Interfaith Ministries' REACH program once a month on Sundays. As an intergenerational outreach, members of the WPC Prayer Shawl Ministry gave a knitting tutorial to students. Students also enjoyed a conversation about Theology, Rest, and Play with special guest preacher and presenter Rev. Dr. Lakisha Lockhart from Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, participation in the CROP Hunger Walk, and an apple-picking outing at Carter Mountain.

In what felt like a true return to “normal,” our Associate Pastor for University and Social Justice Mission and UKirk Student President met several new students at the in-person UVA Fall Activities Fair and were able to resume more frequent (outdoor) one-on-one coffee meetings while continuing outdoor/masked in-person pastoral care meetings with students. In addition, the tradition of Friendsgiving meal returned during Thanksgiving week on the porch of Common Grounds, and Common Grounds hosted daily extended study hours during finals, which included providing a soup dinner on two nights. In both semesters, the UM Committee and other WPC congregation members stepped up to bake cookies, make soup, knit caps/scarves, and serve as welcoming hosts and coffee-makers during finals study hours!

“UKirk has been a spiritual home for me for the past two something years. It is truly special to have a community which welcomes and celebrates students across all spectrums of identity,” says Madaline Marland, a third-year engineering student and UKirk at UVA’s President, who is helping to build a strong student community with Associate Pastor for University and Social Justice Mission Dorothy Piatt-Esguerra and Westminster members and friends. “Seeing our fellowship develop and grow has been a real joy, and I am grateful for all of the puppy pets, yoga sessions, and Cheez-Its!”

If you know any first-year or returning students at the University of Virginia, let Westminster and UKirk at UVA know how they can partner with you in bridging the college gap in baptismal vows for the students your church has helped to grow in faith, hope, and love!

Community of Ministry and Worship: A Ministry of the Presbytery of the James and the Presbytery of Eastern Virginia

No Seminary has ever offered a course on “How to Lead the Church During a Time of Pandemic.” And, if a Seminary did during our Seminary tenures, we doubt that we would have signed up to take that course.

And yet, for two years, pastors, educators, musicians, camp personnel, chaplains, and youth advisors have wrestled with entirely new pandemic ministry related questions:

- Is it safe to worship inside our sanctuary?
- When will it be safe to sing inside the sanctuary?
- How do we provide pastoral care when we cannot visit the sick in the hospital because of Covid-restrictions?

- How do we celebrate a COVID-safe wedding?
- How do we officiate a COVID-safe funeral?
- How do we hold the community together when we are not physically present and spend most of our time together on Zoom or not at all because some of our members have no internet access?

Thanks to the support of the presbyteries of the James and Eastern Virginia, the fourth cohort of the Community of Ministry and Worship has been meeting since August, 2021 and will continue through May, 2022. In our monthly cohort meetings, we ask these and other key questions of church leadership today.

This past September, Tom Long guided us in a preaching seminar for times such as these. In January, our conversation will be guided by Susan Beaumont's insightful book, "How to Lead When You Don't Know Where You are Going: Leading in a Liminal Season."

Our current cohort includes ten pastors from the two presbyteries and is the fourth cohort since this ministry started in the POJ. We meet once a month, most often via Zoom. Our focus is to equip and to strengthen pastoral leadership for those who are out of Seminary for eight years or less.

We will soon be looking to build a fifth cohort that will begin in late August. If you would like to be considered to participate in Cohort Five, please contact either one of us.

In the meantime, please pray for wisdom for us all to lead in this conflicted and confusing times.

Conveners: Gary W. Charles and Kate Fiedler

The Resource Center

Greetings, Friends, from The Resource Center! We are your resource connection, working in partnership with local theological schools and their libraries, as well as judicatories, local congregations, and affiliated organizations. Nearly 16,000 volumes await your exploration: a wide variety of curricula for all ages, books on Christian education, spiritual formation, and related topics in theology, media resources, art, artifacts, and so much more! Check out our newly updated searchable online catalog to explore the possibilities: <http://www.resourcingchurches.com> (there's a link at the bottom of the main page).

Even during these days when COVID-19 means we are unable to welcome you to The Resource Center in person, we are still accepting email requests (info@resourcingchurches.com) to borrow resources and will mail them to you or deliver them (contactless) in a day or two. If you're not sure what you need, send a note with your contact information and we'll call you.

We can also provide phone or Zoom consultation and, with some advanced notice, we can arrange a safe, socially-distanced visit for you. Someday soon, we hope to be able to encourage you once again to just drop by and spend a few minutes or a day perusing hands-on some of the most innovative, creative, and theologically helpful resources we could find! We are here for you and your congregation!

A Story about The Resource Center – Helping Congregations Adjust to COVID Swings

Just when some congregations were beginning their reentry to in-person worship, Sunday school, VBS, etc., COVID and the Omicron variant changed the script once more. Faced with difficult decisions, there is so much to consider, and creative strategizing and resourcing is vitally important. Through a network of resource centers across the nation and contacts serving churches of all sizes and denominations, we can connect you with ideas and resources for you to review. More than likely you'll find something that's just right for your congregation – all just a phone call or email away!

A Plan for our Ministry Going Forward

The next frontier of resourcing is electronic resources – eBooks, videos, and other tools. Christian publishers have been slow to adapt to these new delivery methods, but they are warming to the idea and producing more options in these areas. In partnership with the Samuel DeWitt Proctor School of Theology where we are physically located, The Resource Center will serve as the resourcing partner for their $1 million Thriving Congregations grant from the Lilly Endowment. A small portion of the grant budget has been designated to acquire and provide resources in support of the grant's work both virtually in through traditional means. Our hope is that very soon you will be able to borrow an eBook or other resource from The Resource Center much like you do through your public library or an online bookseller. We keep innovating to serve you better with the thriving of your congregation as our first priority.

How to Get Involved / Next Meeting

Every POJ congregation has a membership to The Resource Center provided through the POJ budget! You are invited to contact Dr. Denise Janssen, executive director, at 708.955.8913 (cell) or REVDLJ@att.net. Even when we can't gather, the staff of your Resource Center is here to help for consultation and resourcing virtually!

Small Church Ministry Team Report

Though I wish all of them well in their new endeavors, in 2022 our team will be missing Lisa Salita, Jason Cashing, and Deborah Rexrode, faithful small church ministry leaders who have all taken positions outside the bounds of the Presbytery. Several folks have indicated an interest in serving in the capacity of helping our smaller congregations, and I will be reaching out to them and to anyone else who would like to join in this ministry of walking alongside of small churches as the year moves along.

In December, the small church ministry team hosted an online seminar specifically geared toward our smaller membership congregations with the Rev. Steve Martin of the Lakelands Institute: "Hybrid Worship that Won't Break You or the Bank." Steve offered one-on-one support to those who signed up for that initial meeting. Given that it was held in December with modest attendance, he is willing to repeat and/or continue the conversation begun in the seminar (at no additional cost) and engage in further consultation with those who would appreciate looking at their own strengths for ministry in a hybrid world. The Zoom video is also available of the first seminar. Contact me for the link – kerra.english@gmail.com

This Spring (February/March) is when Union Presbyterian Seminary starts the process of lining up internships for the following academic year (2022-2023). Our presbytery has helped to subsidize and support interns serving in small church settings. Ashland Presbyterian has been fully engaged with interns for over 10 years and our folks would be happy to talk to any other congregational leaders about this process and what it has meant for us. Dorothee Tripodi in the Supervised Ministry Office at Union can also be a resource for the guidelines of student internships. dtripodi@upsem.edu

Mission and Service Team Report

While concerns about health and safety have hindered the activity of many of our ministry teams, there is nonetheless good news to report and opportunities for your church to be involved. Additionally, each of these ministries welcomes individuals who share a passion for these mission endeavors.

Hunger Ministry

The Hunger Fund of the Presbytery of the James receives designated gifts from churches, largely from the 5-cents-a-meal offering, but also from the mission budget of congregations, especially those who no longer receive a monthly offering. This is a critical ministry.

Through this fund of the presbytery, grants are made to address hunger and its causes. Most are within this presbytery from the western edge in Nelson County to the eastern edge on the Northern Neck. In addition, a portion goes to international partners, such as FONDAMA (Joining Hands Together) in Haiti or to those working for better policies like Bread for the World. Because of your efforts, a man who lacks adequate shelter and food has a hot lunch at Second Presbyterian Church, a woman who struggles as an immigrant to feed her family on Southside can get food from Sacred Heart's Food pantry, a child on the Northern Neck can go home with food in her backpack, a farmer in Haiti has training in growing food in a tire garden, and a woman in Guatemala receives egg laying chickens that will increase the food and nutrition of her children. These are only a few of the many examples.

In addition, the presbytery's hunger fund supports the Presbyterian Hunger Program of the Presbyterian Church (USA) and enables an even greater reach of funds received.

Sadly, there has been a reduction in the funds coming to the Presbytery's Hunger Fund. As a result, all our grants could not be made. Several years ago, the presbytery received $77,298. This year it was $46,691. Undoubtedly, the shift to online worship has made it difficult to receive a monthly offering. Your Hunger Committee urges each congregation to contribute from your church's budget, if taking a monthly offering is not realistic, or to find another creative way to raise needed funds and help those in this presbytery and around the world. We are richly blessed and can do so much more!

To you who have continued to give "to the least of these" please hear the heartfelt thanks from those whose voice is seldom heard but who are grateful for food and for each of you who are providing it in Christ's name.

Public Policy Witness Ministry

The Public Policy Witness Ministry team hosted a virtual meeting on Monday, October 25, on Criminal Justice Reform as it relates to juveniles--especially juveniles at the Bon Air Juvenile Corrections Center. Our speakers were our own Lauren Ramseur, co-pastor of Voices of Jubilee, and Valerie Slater with Rise for Youth. We discussed what Christians will want to focus on in the next Virginia General Assembly. Jesus calls us to care for the least of these. Jesus also calls us to care for those imprisoned. We are supporting the establishment of smaller facilities rather than one large facility for juvenile offenders. These smaller facilities would be scattered throughout the Commonwealth so that families of incarcerated youth would not have to drive such long distances. It is important that juveniles be in close proximity to their family members so that they can get the emotional support they need from family visits. To find out more go to <https://www.riseforyouth.org/issues/now-is-the-time/>.

We would also like for oversight of juvenile justice reform to be lodged with Virginia's Secretary of Health and Human Services since we regard juvenile crime as a more like a sickness to be treated, than a permanent character flaw.

On December 22, the Public Policy Witness Ministry Team (along with several other organizations) met with Senator Creigh Deeds to ask his continued support for common sense gun laws. We would like for him to support any laws that would stiffen penalties for adults who are negligent in leaving firearms loaded and unlocked and accessible to children. We also hope that the ERPO Law will remain as is--that law would allow a judge to temporarily remove a firearm from someone deemed to be at risk of causing harm to him/herself and/or others. Finally, we want him to support the current law which allows localities to determine for themselves whether firearms should be allowed in public spaces, like local government office buildings, parks and downtown malls. God gives us life. God in Christ brought a message of love and peace. Our current gun culture, which would normalize guns in public spaces, is inconsistent with that message.

Self-Development of People Ministry

The Self-Development of People (SDOP) Ministry of the Presbytery of the James increased the number of members by three in 2021. The SDOP Ministry will soon be without the long time and dedicated services of Rev. Beverly Bullock, who retired December 31, 2021.

The SDOP Ministry is blessed with members who are energetic, creative, faithful and enthusiastic with the anticipation of fulfilling the goal of building bridges. The goal is to form partnerships with POJ churches, community leaders, groups, and non-profits.

To build bridges and promote the available grants, the SDOP Ministry will welcome all referrals, all opportunities, and will network with community leaders to schedule informational workshops, which will be both virtual on Zoom and in person when feasible and safe.

The SDOP Ministry of the Presbytery of the James approved a grant to Community Empowerment for Energy, Wellness and Conservation for $4,000.00 for 2021. This community group was referred by Rev. Ulysses Payne, pastor at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Petersburg, VA.

A Special Project referred by Rev. Lauren Ramseur, co-pastor of Voices of Jubilee, was approved for a Gift of $2,500.00 to assist a family in need.

The total Grant and Gift provided in 2021 was $6,500.00. This amount exceeded the Funding received from OGHS donations for 2021; however, the SDOP Committee was able to use available funds to meet these needs and requests.

The SDOP Ministry is blessed to be able to follow the mandate in Matthew 25:35-40. The Presbytery of the James has been very supportive with new MAST Leadership under Rev. Mary Jane Winter and Fred Holbrook, EP.

World Mission Ministry

The World Mission Ministry was pleased to welcome Dr. Hani Hanna, president of the Theological Seminary in Cairo, Egypt, who was in Richmond during the last week of January. With the rising cases of COVID, the presentation was offered online through Zoom, which also allowed individuals at a distance from Richmond to participate. Stan Skreslet hosted the meeting, having taught at the seminary in Cairo for many years before coming to Union. Dr. Hanna grew up in a Presbyterian family in Egypt, earned his PhD in theology from Princeton Seminary and served as the academic dean of Evangelical Theological Seminary before becoming its president in March 2021. Dr. Hanna has a personal connection with Dr. Safwat Marzouk, the new professor of Old Testament at Union Presbyterian Seminary and a graduate of the seminary in Cairo.

Cindy Corell continues to work remotely as a Presbyterian Mission Co-Worker during this time of intense danger in Haiti when kidnappings are common and gangs rule the roads. Fortunately, she can continue her ministry even if it is not in person. She is also eager to meet with churches in the presbytery, to preach, or to speak to a Sunday School class providing the latest information and inviting us to hold the people of Haiti in our prayers and in our hearts. Invite Cindy. Learn from her. Pray for her and for the people of Haiti.

How can you help? Please continue your financial support of Cindy Corell. She is the only Presbyterian mission co-worker assigned to Haiti and works tirelessly, serving as a bridge so that no one whose lives are in peril will be forgotten. She is greatly needed and she needs us. Working virtually, she is coordinating with FONDAMA to assist relief efforts in Haiti and to support the rural initiatives of growing food and training farmers. Send checks for Cindy's support to the Presbytery of the James where they are collected and routed to Cindy's account.

Helen Salita, our Young Adult Volunteer, is having an exceptional year in Dundee, Scotland, working with congregations and community groups in a ministry of the Church of Scotland to the marginalized.

Calling Young Adults: Does your congregation have a young adult (ages 18-30) who would like to explore a year of service either in this country or internationally? The Presbytery offers a partial scholarship to anyone accepted from our member churches. Information can be found online with the Presbyterian Church.

Thank you for all the ways this presbytery and its congregations supports mission and ministry across the world, as well as right here.

Camp Hanover, Inc. Report to the Presbytery of the James

February 2022

*So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up.
Galatians 6:9*

As we approach the two-year mark of the COVID-19 Pandemic, we continue to pray for the perseverance to endure this time of trial for our world, our ministries and one another. The pandemic continues to challenge our ability to fulfill our purpose to build community in the name of Jesus Christ, yet we remain hopeful and blessed by the opportunities God has given us to share the Good News with others.

The fall and winter have been quiet at camp, as day events, retreat groups and guest groups continued to refrain from gathering. Weather dampened our ability to host Hanover Christmas, though we snuck in an abbreviated event on Friday evening. While more than 50 campers planned to attend our traditional Winter Camp in December, the raging omicron variant led us to postpone the event, pending ability to recruit staff and re-schedule in February or March.

Since our last report to Presbytery, a new staff member has joined the Camp Hanover team. Jeff Arnott began January 31 as the Associate Director of Operations. In this new, full-time role, Jeff is responsible for the day-to-day, onsite management of the facilities and grounds which make up Camp Hanover's 621-acres, as well as oversight of the dining, housekeeping, and hospitality experiences and services Camp Hanover provides to campers and guests.

As we moved into January, we were excited to launch a new community-focused program -- Camp Hanover After School Explorers (CHASE) , which is an "outdoorsy" after-school program for elementary school students in Hanover County. CHASE provides children the opportunity to get outside each day to discover the natural world God has entrusted to us, to play, to pray, and to have time to just be kids (and get some homework done)! The CHASE program offers child-centered nature lessons, daily devotions and continues building relationships through Camp Hanover's traditional small group model.

We are thrilled to share Summer Camp 2022 registration opened on January 11 for 2021 campers and January 18 for all campers. The 2022 season will see more capacity as compared to what could be made available in 2021 and features the return of popular half-week overnight camps for our youngest campers. We plan to offer sessions for 8 camper groups per week, up from 6 groups per week in 2021. Capacity will remain below the pre-pandemic level of sessions of 10 camper groups per week offered in 2019 in order to implement mitigation practices to minimize the risk of virus transmission at summer camp.

While traditional programming has been limited, the Board of Directors has spent much time reflecting on Camp Hanover's future, and adopted a 5-year strategic plan in October 2021 that focuses this ministry on welcome and inclusion, while creating an impact where people who are served by Camp Hanover will:

- Have transformational experiences at camp
- Respond to the call to leadership in church and environmental ministries
- Be inspired to actively engage in their local faith and civic communities
- Contribute to the fulfilling of the Beloved Community: a community in which everyone is valued and cared for, free from poverty, hunger, and hate.

Camp Hanover leadership is finalizing the implementation plan for the strategy outlined by the Board and looks forward to engaging with the Presbytery congregations to join us in living into this renewed vision for Camp.

COVID continues to impact our ministry, as it has all others in the Presbytery. Annual budgets have been challenged with on-going revenue losses. And yet, to date, Camp Hanover remains a vibrant ministry and has been able to maintain a strong and stable long-term financial position. The continued support of the POJ and its congregations is certainly a blessing to this place apart.

There are many ways the POJ congregations can continue to support Camp Hanover:

- Share the news that Summer 2022 Camp registration is OPEN! Space will be limited again in 2022 as we plan for continued COVID mitigation measures. We anticipate popular weeks will fill quickly and encourage early registration.
- Help us recruit our Summer 2022 summer staff. The labor shortage being experienced across our nation has impacted summer camps as well. Share Camp Hanover with young adults in your congregation and community who may be called to serve in summer camp ministry.
- Lead a volunteer project. We have identified hundreds of volunteer projects to continue to refurbish and improve Camp Hanover facilities and always need some sprucing up prior to the summer camp season. If you're interested in giving your time and talent to complete or lead a project, please contact the camp office. Volunteer projects at camp provide your congregation the opportunity to serve together outdoors.
- Camp is open for day events, retreat, and small group ministry. Plan time to come together to experience God's creation at Camp Hanover. Gather outdoors and let us help you rebuild your community after a difficult two years of distancing from one another.
- Make a gift to Camp Hanover's Annual Fund. The Annual Fund supports the day-to-day operation of the Camp, which continues to be an important avenue to reduce the impact of the revenue losses we have sustained during the last two years. Your gift now will help this ministry remain strong for years to come.

We are grateful to celebrate 65 years in ministry in 2022 and we are full of the hope as we share God's love in the year ahead.

Jennifer R. Gwyn
